

External Exhaust Valve

G3-ME

This prevents the differential pressure sensor from being contaminated when the product to be tested contains water, oil and other substances or by water dunk test.

